

CANALETTO PROSECCO

D.O.C. Prosecco

WINERY

Grapes are grown near the graceful slopes of Valdobbiadene, next to the beautiful hill-top town of Conegliano in the Veneto region, northern Italy. The most common form of cultivation is Sylvoz and Guyot. The number of vines per hectare is from 3500 to 4000.

Name:	Canaletto Prosecco
Class:	Sparkling
Region:	D.O.C. Prosecco
Grape Varieties:	Glera
Case / Bottle Size:	12/750 ml.
Alcohol Volume:	11%

TASTING NOTE

Rightly evanescent, with a fine and persistent perlage. It features a pale straw yellow colour with greenish shades. The aroma is fruity, with hints of apples, citrus and grapefruit. It shows pronounced notes of wisteria in bloom and acacia flowers. A full body wine, fresh and subtle, with a good level of acidity.

