

SOL DE CHILE SAUVIGNON BLANC

Maule Valley

WINERY

Our vineyards are located in the scenic village of Villa Alegre, in the heart of the Maule Valley, 285 kilometers south of Santiago. We have 520 hectares planted with modern tech drip irrigation system. The Maule Valley is the region with more vineyards in Chile. The soils are derived from volcanic ash and are composed of sand and earth sandy loam. The vineyards are flat and receive an excellent exposure to sunlight. Yields are carefully controlled to produce concentrated wines, excellent quality and elegance.

TASTING NOTE

Our Sauvignon Blanc has a yellow color with greenish tones, alongside a complex nose dominated by pineapple and gooseberry. The mouth follows the nose with a superb taste and richness. The acidity provides the structure and gives the wine focus. The end of mouth extends with lime and minerals. Drink with appetizers, or fresh or cooked seafood, such as oysters, scallops and salmon.
