

SCARLETT CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Rutherford, Napa Valley

WINERY

The McGah Family Vineyards are located in Rutherford, an appellation widely considered to be one of the premier sources of Napa Valley fruit. Purchased by E.J. McGah in 1990, the 65-acre vineyards continue to be family owned and operated today.

The McGah family takes great pride in that fact that wines produced with our ultra premium Rutherford bench fruit have been awarded 100 point scores, thanks to our first-class vineyard management team, impeccable farming practices and quality control. Our personal touch is evident throughout our operation, as we hand select grapes each year to ensure consistency vintage after vintage. We are committed to growing exceptional fruit that gives Napa its standout reputation as a wine-producing region.

TASTING NOTE

Flirting with perfection, the 2016 McGah Family Cabernet Sauvignon is a seamless, flawless and a compelling Rutherford beauty. Unbelievable complexity and layers intermingle with aromas of berry compote, cassis with a black cherry core that jumps from the glass. The mid palate is a silky flow of abundant blue and black fruits, followed with an opulent, full-bodied mouthfeel. The integrated structure and polished tannins carry through to a detailed and long finish. This blend from five of our Cabernet Sauvignon blocks on the estate showcases what an amazing terroir the McGah Family Vineyard is.
