

AMONTILLADO PASTRANA SV

D.O. Jerez-Xérès-Sherry

WINERY

Bodegas Hidalgo la Gitana was founded in 1792 and since then the company has passed from father to son. Today is one of the few wine companies owned and controlled by the family and run by the eighth generation in direct line of the founder.

Amontillado Pastrana. It is a new, single-vineyard Amontillado from a plot within Miraflores in Sanlúcar de Barrameda. Miraflores is one of the most prestigious estate/vineyard of the Marco de Jerez district. Is considered a coastal vineyard due to close proximity to the Atlantic Ocean, only 3 kilometers away, this contributes to an extraordinary salinity characteristic to the Amontillado Pastrana.

TASTING NOTE

Light mahogany color, quite bright and clear. The nose combines iron rust with pungent, marine, sea breeze aromas. The palate is pure salt and iodine, a piece of sea in a bottle that is a little extreme and sharp, pungent and penetrating. It's a wine that started its life as a Manzanilla, so it was a sharp wine to start with and was sharpened further by its aging in a winery some 400 meters from the sea. An extreme Amontillado that dries your mouth. Cuts like a knife!
