

RICARDO DUMAS ROBLE

D.O. Ribera del Duero

WINERY

Ricardo Dumas from Bodegas Virgen de la Asunción established in 1957 is located in La Horra, Burgos in a small area known as “Triangulo de Oro” or “Gold Triangle” the name is given by the reputation of the outstanding quality of vines that grows there at 800 meters above sea level. The soil is rocky with clay. These components allow a well balance natural ecosystem for the plants. The vines have an average of 40 years and are hand harvested. Fermentation is done in stainless steel temperature control vessels that preserve the freshness and fruit aromas. Fifteen days maceration process. Aging for 6 months on 80% American Oak and 20% French Oak.

Name:	Ricardo Dumas Roble
Class:	Red
Region:	D.O. Ribera del Duero
Vintage:	2016
Grape Varieties:	Tempranillo
Case / Bottle Size:	12/750ml
Alcohol Volume:	13.5%

TASTING NOTE

Bright and intense ruby red with purple hues. On the nose presence of blueberries and raspberry undertone by cedar, toast and subtle vanilla aromas. On the mouth feels velvety, medium body and nice finish.

