

ANDEAN TORRONTES

Mendoza

WINERY

---

Andean Vineyards in the region of Cuyo, is in the heart of the Argentine Andes range. The special characteristics of the Andean soil and of its vineyards were successfully combined with Andean vineyards wine making team, in order to challenge and overcome difficult weather conditions. High Altitude vineyards in the Andes Mountains are the best quality vineyards of Argentina, because of various reasons; wide Temperature range, with Hot Days and Cool Nights. Excellent sun exposure/radiation. Higher skin to pulp ratio results in premium quality. All of our varietals are site selected, from the best high altitude sub regions of each varietal.

Name:	Andean Torrontes
Class:	White
Region:	Mendoza
Vintage:	2016
Grape Varieties:	Torrontes
Case / Bottle Size:	12/750ml
Alcohol Volume:	13%

TASTING NOTE

---

A light to medium-bodied wine. Yellow colour with bright green hues. The wine shows intense aromas of white peach, pear, and apricot with a rich, floral bouquet. Refreshing taste, fruity, lively and crispy, with a balanced acidity and a slight sweetness.

